

Market Nordhalben – perfectly located, with a great outlook.

In the heart of the Franconian Forest, on the border with Thuringia there's an area of approximately 22 square kilometers with an enticing promise for ambitious businesses. This is Nordhalben, a vibrant, appealing town with exceptional recreational opportunities and a very favorable economy.

With a population of around 1,700, Nordhalben provides a rewarding quality of life for its active, forward-looking citizens. Many of them are qualified and motivated professionals who mostly commute, but would like to work in Nordhalben. In nearby locations such as Hof, Coburg, Bamberg, and Bayreuth, there are respected colleges and universities who are eager to work with businesses, and all the major facilities a business needs are either in place on-site or available nearby.

Conveniently located in central Germany

Nordhalben has good transport links. It's only a short drive to the main west - east (A4) and north – south (A9) routes, and the area is also served by the A70, A72, A73 and A93 motorways.

Wurzbach and Bad Steben railway stations are about 10 minutes drive from Nordhalben. From Wurzbach station it's only a short journey to the ICE service in Saalfeld.

Nordhalben's existing DSL internet connection is upgrading in 2017 to fiber-optic broadband, offering faster speeds and greater capacity.

When it's leisure time, you're spoiled for choice

With the great outdoors literally on your doorstep, there are so many tempting possibilities.

Nordhalben is a hiker's paradise. It's within the Green Belt, and close to the route of the Rennsteig, Germany's oldest hiking trail. Nordhalben is also a magnet for cyclists, horse riders and even glider pilots, with our own airfield and Air Sport club.

Winter sports enthusiasts enjoy easy access to trails for all levels of ability, with the ski lift ready to elevate you to beautiful, magnificent panoramas.

Fans of water sports are equally well catered-for in Nordhalben. You can sail or canoe on the Bleilochalsperre or try the thrills of water skiing on warm summer days.

When it's time to relax after all this activity, Nordhalben provides not only natural surroundings but also nature's cures, with a variety of brine and spa treatments, saunas and mud baths in nearby Bad Steben and Bad Lobenstein.

With many more clubs and activities available around Nordhalben, this is certainly a town that knows how to live well!

Life in Nordhalben – everything you need is here

You're sure to find what you want in Nordhalben. Good living, good company and good shopping too! In fact, Nordhalben has Bavaria's largest village shop, where our local citizens are also shareholders.

There are all kinds of shops and craft stores, plus a pharmacy, doctors and therapists, inns and a hotel. Life here is enjoyable and practical. If you're tired of ever-increasing rents and unattainable prices, Nordhalben has the answer, affordable residential properties and commercial land.

Nordhalben is a town with a future, and to prove it we can take care of your young ones, from crèche to kindergarten to primary school, which also offers care hours in the afternoon to help working parents. Then it's an easy progression to schools in Bad Lobenstein, Naila and the county town of Kronach.

Take the time to explore Nordhalben. We're sure you'll like what you see; the mayor and his team are ready to help you, and welcome you.